

Hard lessons.

A lot of people fought the pandemic. Nurses were right there at the bedside, despite all the risks. We must not forget what COVID-19 exposed. Our health-care system is fragile, and nurses and health-care professionals are its backbone. They've earned respect and the right to fair treatment, for a long time to come.

#KeepNursingStrong

www.ona.org

Ontario Nurses' Association

